SPECIAL NOTICES.

Henry's Carbolic Salve is so well-known that it is only necessary to caution against imitations. It requires a careful admixture of the carbolic acid with other ingredients to produce a salve that may be relied upon. The genuine only guaranteed. See that it bears the signature and private proprietary stamp of John F. Henry. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO., Proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

Dr. Mott's Liver Pills.—It is easy enough to make a pill, but to make a good one, ah! that's the difficulty! There are cheap, harsh, drastic pills that are even less than a dose of salts; but a good medicine like DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, which penetrates to the seat of disease is a desideratum indeed. Will positively cure all diseases of the liver. Sold everywhere. JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO., Proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

About Bitters.—At certain periods of life a tonic is necessary; but there is danger in using stimulants that injure the organs of digestion while giving temporary relief. To obviate this and present to the public a tonic free from ALCOHOLIC POISON, Dr. Greene prepared the OXYGENATED BITTERS, a sure cure for DYSPEPSIA and all kindred complaints. Sold everywhere. JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO., Proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

Prevalent Disease.—There is no disease so prevalent in America as dyspepsia and certainly none which has so generally baffled and defeated the skill of the medical profession. The only remedy for this distressing complaint is a pure medicated stimulant. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, whose essential principle is sound rye, is admitted by medical practitioners to be the only alternative, corrective and restorative on which they can rely. The Bitters are the best possible specific for flatulency, dizziness, water-brash, irregularity of the bowels, and all indications of confirmed dyspepsia. They do not excite, but soothe the irritated stomach and bowels, and may be taken by persons of the most delicate and sensitive organization, who are unpleasantly affected by the use of the ordinary stimulants of commerce. Though their effect is most decisive, yet they are so mild and beneficial in operation as to be suitable to children as well as to adults.

Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Harper's Weekly.

ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press.

The Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous.

The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Its articles are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.

Its papers upon existing questions and its inimitable cartoons help to mould the sentiments of the country.—Pittsburg Commercial.

Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press.

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the paternal families by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence.—The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The Leading American Newspaper."

NEW YORK TRIBUNE

FOUNDED BY HORACE GREELEY.

It publishes all the news, earlier, more fully, and more intelligently than any other paper.

It insists on peace throughout the whole country, the right of local self-government, and the protection of all classes in the exercise of their just and legal rights.

It advocates confidence and good feeling between North and South, and labors for an honest and abiding reconciliation.

It maintains fairness and candor toward all public men and questions, and dignity and courtesy towards associates and rivals.

It publishes scientific news, reports, discussions and discoveries to a degree of fulness and accuracy never before attained by any paper.

It gives every week ten or more columns of the most carefully prepared agricultural matter during the year, more in the aggregate than the entire contents of any other agricultural publication, and the whole forming a department of which an eminent agricultural editor said: "It has done more to make good farmers than any other influence which ever existed."

It has published a series of scientific and literary extracts which have met a wider sale and more emphatic popular approval than any similar publication of the kind.

WHAT THE SOUTHERN PRESS SAYS OF THE TRIBUNE.

We consider THE TRIBUNE a very valuable paper.—Asheville (N. C.) Citizen.

The New York Tribune, in its faithful and searching exposure of outrage slanders on Alabama and other States, has done immense service to truth and justice.—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph and Messenger.

We thank The New York Tribune for its manly and powerful words in demanding justice for the people of Alabama.—(Montgomery Ala.) News.

The best newspaper in the world is the New York Tribune. It combines the dignity and sagacity of the London Times with the representative news enterprise of America.—(Baltimore Bulletin.)
